The world comes to Nuremberg

Welcome to the world's leading exhibition for windows, doors and facades – to fensterbau/frontale 2010! It is not without reason that decision-makers from all over the world use this top-class information pool to update on new technologies, components and prefabricated units. Rely on the expert advice of the sector's leading suppliers – and find the right solution for your long-term success. When it comes to the latest innovations, fensterbau/frontale clearly sets the pace: 58 per cent of the exhibits are new products! Look forward to four exciting days at the exhibition, packed with information, intensive talks and new contacts – and see for yourself what drives the industry.

Together with the parallel HOLZ-HANDWERK, some 1,200 exhibitors from 30 countries are waiting for you in Nuremberg. fensterbau/frontale 2010 shows you the way to success.

We look forward to seeing you!

A welcome extra fensterbau/frontale traditionally takes place parallel to HOLZ-HANDWERK. Profit from the closely related themes and many synergies of the two exhibitions, and look forward to new prospects for wood crafts, windows, doors and facades.

Outlooks and insights: the supporting programme!

The special shows and events in the supporting programme also focus on windows, doors and facades, and the latest information and interesting talks are in store for you.

The up-to-date programme is available at “metallbauTreff”

The “metallbauTreff” takes place for the third time and provides metalworkers with their own communication forum. Use the opportunity to exchange views with colleagues from your sector.

Organizers: “metallbau” magazine, Gütersloh, and NürnbergMesse GmbH

“The good ones are efficient in all disciplines”

This special show provides information about the varied possibilities that windows, facades and glass offer for improving energy efficiency, living comfort and security. Innovative exhibits show what today’s modern prefabricated units look like and what certificates and performance data are necessary to supply planners, investors and developers with reliable information for new and existing buildings.

Organizers: Fachverband Glas Fenster Fassade Baden-Württemberg, ift Rosenheim and NürnbergMesse GmbH

5th Forum Architecture-Windows-Facades

“Building Outfit” – the presentation and perception of architecture in public.

The facade is the face of the building. Facades are also imagined, described, recorded and photographed. The theme of this forum is communication through architects.

Organizers: NürnbergMesse GmbH in cooperation with the magazine “xia intelligente architektur”, Leinfelden-Echterdingen

Architects’Area

Expert information and practical solutions specifically for architects are offered on all stands marked with the red Architects’Area logo.

IBS Award + Conference

A jury of well-known architects and planners has presented the IBS Award (International Building Skin) to pioneering facade solutions in international projects. The IBS Conference consolidates the subject of “intelligent building skins” at the Nuremberg exhibition venue.

Organizers: NürnbergMesse GmbH in cooperation with the magazine “xia intelligente architektur”, Leinfelden-Echterdingen

Innovation Award Architecture-Windows-Facades

This competition is intended for architects, planning engineers and manufacturing companies. The building skin solutions presented at the exhibition are particularly innovative and of high architectural quality.

Organizers: NürnbergMesse GmbH in cooperation with the magazines “xia intelligente architektur” and “AIT”, Leinfelden-Echterdingen
